HR Prompt Library — 30 Templates

1. Job Posting Template

```
Role: [Position Title]
Company: [Company Name]
Audience: [Seniority level]

Create a job posting for [Position] at [Company]. The post should be clear, appealing, and highlight growth opportunities. Include: responsibilities, requirements, nice-to-have skills, and next steps. Tone: professional but human, no buzzwords.
```

2. Resume Screening

```
Role: HR Recruiter
Audience: Candidate

Screen this resume against the job requirements:
[LIST REQUIREMENTS]

Score each requirement 0-10. Provide final go/no-go recommendation with brief rationale.
```

3. Score Matching Sheet

```
Role: HR Recruiter
Format: Table

Create a scoring table matching candidate skills to job requirements. Each cell gets a score 0-10. Include total score, percentage match, and readiness level (ready/somewhat/not-ready).

Candidate: [NAME]
Requirements:
[LIST]
```

4. Rejection Letter

```
Role: HR Manager
Tone: Empathetic but professional

Write a rejection email for a candidate who was close but not selected:
Candidate: [NAME]
Position: [POSITION]
Feedback: [BRIEF]

Keep it short, sincere, and leave door open for future roles.
```

5. Invitation to Interview

```
Role: HR Coordinator
Tone: Friendly, professional

Draft an interview invitation email:
- Confirmed time/date
- Video link or address
- Required documents to bring
- What to expect in the interview
```

6. Interview Guide

```
Role: Hiring Manager
Audience: Interviewer

Create interview questions for [ROLE]:
1. Technical assessment
2. Behavioral questions (STAR format)
3. Culture-fit questions
4. Candidate questions to ask

Each question should test a specific competency.
```

7. Welcome Onboarding Email

```
Role: HR Manager
Tone: Warm, excited

Create a welcome email sent after a candidate accepts the offer:
- First day details
- What to bring
- Introductions to team
- Resources and documentation
```

8. Onboarding Checklist

```
Role: HR Coordinator
Format: Checklist

Generate a 30-day onboarding checklist for a new [ROLE]:
Week 1: Administrative, tools access
Week 2: Role-specific training
Week 3: Projects, feedback sessions
Week 4: Goals setting, integration check
```

9. Reference Request Template

```
Role: Recruiter
Audience: Former Manager

Write a professional reference request email:
- Candidate's name and role
- Specific questions we need answered
- Deadline for response
- Contact information
```

10. Job Description (Lean Version)

```
Role: Hiring Manager
Audience: Candidates

Write a concise job description focusing on impact and growth:
- 3 key responsibilities (not 10)
- 3 essential skills
- 1 growth opportunity
- Why someone should join us
```

> Tip: Use the 5-Step Prompt Formula. Always specify role, audience, tone, format, and constraints.